The beautiful colors of fall may be gone for this year, but there are still plenty of festivities in and around Hendersonville to keep your spirits bright!

There are numerous ways to see holiday lights but we recommend the downtown tree lighting on November 29th or the drive through exhibit Shadrack's Christmas Wonderland in Tryon, NC for those not wanting to brave the cold or walk long distances.

Shows by the Hendersonville Community Theatre and Flat Rock Playhouse are a special treat, along with the many venues to take in live music.

Families should checkout our kid-friendly recommendations of which many are free.

Happy Holidays from Ryan and Suzanne!
